CSI Courses Offered on the EITC Campus: Frequently Asked Questions

1. Who do I contact for more information?
Call or e-mail Josh Sakelaris: 208-705-6961, jsakelaris@csi.edu.

2. What CSI courses are available Spring 2014 semester on the EITC campus?
To search for the courses to be held at EITC, use MyCSI:
• Go to www.csi.edu and click on the “MyCSI” icon.
• Click on the “Guest” button.
• Click on the “Course Search” link.
• Select the “Term” from the drop-down menu.
• Select EITC under the “Campus” drop-down menu.
• Click the “Search” button to display course detail information.

3. How much will I have to pay?
CSI tuition is $110 per credit hour. For example, a 3-credit course will cost $330.00 plus the required text book(s). For full details on tuition and fees, including rates and payment deadlines, go to http://www.csi.edu/prospectiveStudents_/studentServices/tuition_fees/fallspring1314.asp.

It’s important for students to submit their Idaho Certificate of Residency form in order to receive the in-state tuition credit hour charge.

4. Is ACT/COMPASS testing required?
A few of the available courses require ACT/COMPASS placement exam scores as part of the registration process.
Also, students are advised to take the COMPASS if they have further questions about their individual skills in college-level reading and writing coursework. Students should contact the CSI Testing Center (208) 732-6532 for remote COMPASS testing arrangements on the EITC campus.

5. When and where do I register?
Interested students should call Josh Sakelaris 208-705-6961 for assistance with the admission and registration process.

6. When do classes start?
The Spring 2014 semester begins Tuesday, Jan. 21, 2014. (CSI is closed and no classes are held on Monday, Jan.
20, 2014, in honor of Martin Luther King Day.)

7. How do I get my books?
If your course is to be held on the EITC campus, you may purchase your books at the EITC Bookstore, located in the Christofferson Building #3. Otherwise, you may go the following website and order them online:

8. Can I get financial aid for my classes?
Students must be degree seeking at CSI to be eligible for Federal Financial Aid through CSI.

Students who are degree-seeking at the University of Idaho, Idaho State University, Boise State University, or Eastern Idaho Technical College may qualify for financial aid under that institution’s consortium agreement. Please check with your institution’s financial aid office for more information.

For BYU-Idaho students, a consortium financial aid agreement between BYU-Idaho and CSI is not available at this time. Students should contact the CSI Financial Aid Office (208) 732-6273 for a listing of participating college/university consortium schools in the Eastern Idaho area.

9. Do these CSI courses meet degree requirements at other institutions?

The courses often satisfy general education and college-level elective credits for degree and certificate requirements. However, students are strongly encouraged to consult closely with advising personnel at the institution from which you will receive your certificate or degree for details.
