

I do not want to take advantage of the advising services offered by the College of Southern Idaho (CSI).

By not utilizing these services, I understand and agree:

- I am considered to be self advised.
- I take full responsibility for registering in the courses listed on the attached form and any and all consequences.
- CSI cannot be held responsible if the courses for which I am registered do not meet the requirements for my declared major.
- Enrolling in courses not required for my declared major could delay my expected graduation or completion date.
- It is my responsibility to be aware of all admissions and graduation requirements for my declared major.
- It is my responsibility to be aware that some courses have required pre(co)-requisites, understand what these courses are, and how to meet specific requirements.
- Enrolling in courses not required for my declared major has the potential to negatively impact my Financial Aid and/or educational benefits – I may end up owing money back or may become ineligible for future aid.
- It is my responsibility to ensure the courses, for which I registered for, will satisfy transfer requirements at my school or institution of choice.
