

CSI Agriculture Department Tour

TOURS AVAILABLE MONDAY-FRIDAY

TIMES BETWEEN 8AM & 4PM

If you are interested to work in agriculture and want to gain valuable knowledge and hands-on skills, the CSI Agriculture Department may be for you! CSI Agriculture Department has a wide range of courses, degrees, and opportunities available for current and future students.

1. Ag Department tours are flexible based on your interests and desired time spent on campus. See activities below and choose which to participate in during your tour:

Required Agriculture Facility Tour (45 minutes-1 hour): Meet an Ag Eagle in the lobby of the Evergreen building. Tour classrooms, greenhouse, Breckenridge Farm, and the Applied Science and Technology (ATIC) building. Learn about agriculture programs of interest and activities in the Agriculture Department.

Meet with a Program Advisor (30 minutes): Based on availability of faculty – visit with CSI Ag Department Chair or instructor about required courses, registration, scholarships, and more.

Sit in on a Class (1 hour): Agriculture courses are happening throughout the day. If you choose this activity, you will be provided with available classes for the day and time of tour.

Lunch at the CSI Cafeteria (30 minutes): Based on tour time – student visitors and Ag Eagle can eat lunch on the Ag Department; cafeteria is open from 11:30 am-1:30 pm. Guests are welcome to join, but they will be responsible for paying the $9.75 fee themselves.

CSI Campus Tour (1 hour): Meet with a General Admissions Coordinator at the CSI Welcome Center to learn more about financial aid, housing, and campus life. A CSI Ambassador will lead you on a campus tour.

2. CSI Ag Programs – Choose one or more programs you are especially interested in learning about:

Agribusiness
