Explanation

- Arrival Activities – Students work on an array of differing subjects as they come into the classroom.
- Learning Stations – Stations include both student and teacher directed activities that involve literacy, math, science, art, engineering, and more.
- Snack – Snack is a time to have conversations, grow relationships, develop self-regulation, and learn healthy eating practices.
- Small Group Inquiry – Students work in small, collaborative groups to pursue a chosen unit of study. This time can also include an independent work time to expand their learning.
- Large Group Inquiry – This time can include literacy, music, movement, math, science, and work in our unit of study.
