school starts. I want to remind you all about our dress code for the meetings. You all need to have your nameplates, nametags, and be wearing business attire. It is also important that you all uses and learn parliamentary procedure in all meetings.

- President's Report:
 - I will be in a scholarship pageant on July 31st, please come to me if you are interested in buying tickets. Also, make sure to let Angie know which picture you want to be on your business card. If you have not received any emails from me so far, be sure to come and visit with me so I can get the correct address, and check your email often. Senators can pick up their keys from Jasmine anytime, be sure not to lose them, because there is a fee. Hopefully, those of you who needed a boost with your GPA's worked hard in your summer classes, and grades will be checked soon. Now just stay safe and responsible until August, and RELAX.
