

CONSTITUTION OF THE ASCSI SENATE

We, the Associated Students of the College of Southern Idaho, hereby referred to as ASCSI, in order to provide for the organized conduct of student affairs, to promote and facilitate student participation in educational, intellectual, social, cultural, civic, and recreational activities, and as the official voice of the ASCSI, hereby set forth the powers and limitations of the student government which shall be referred to as the ASCSI Senate; and the College of Southern Idaho shall be referred to as CSI in this document.

ARTICLE I: MEMBERSHIP AND RIGHTS OF THE ASCSI

All current fee-paying CSI students shall be members of the ASCSI with all the rights, privileges, and responsibilities in any CSI or related activity to which the authority of this constitution extends. The ASCSI Senate shall not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, disability, veteran's status, or national origin.

ARTICLE II: EXECUTIVE OFFICERS OF THE ASCSI

Section 1: Executive Officer Membership

There shall be exactly four Executive Officers of the ASCSI; President and Vice-President, who are elected by popular vote of the ASCSI, and the Treasurer and Secretary, who are elected by a super-majority vote of the ASCSI Senate.

Section 2: Executive Council

Clause 1: The Executive Council consists of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Pro-Tempore, And Advisors.

Clause 2: All members of the Executive Council shall be required to attend all Executive Council meetings.

Clause 3: The President shall be the Chair and preside over the Executive Council.

Clause 4: Executive Council members are not permitted to make motions in Senate meetings excluding the Pro-Tempore.

Clause 5: Executive Council members are not permitted to cast their vote in Senate-related matters excluding the Pro-Tempore unless stated otherwise herein.

Section 3: ASCSI President

Clause 1: The President shall hold the term for a period of one year, and together with the Vice-President shall, chosen for the same term, be elected by a plurality of votes cast by ASCSI.

Clause 2: The President shall preside over the Executive Council and Senate.

Clause 3: The President shall be a non-voting member of the Senate and ex-officio member of all ASCSI councils and committees.

Clause 4: The President shall administer the affairs of the ASCSI and shall be charged with executing all laws and rules adopted by the ASCSI.

Clause 5: The President shall be the chief diplomat and shall develop and maintain relations with the administration of CSI, the local, state, and federal governments, other student associations, and all other entities which shall affect the general welfare of the ASCSI.

Clause 6: In order to maintain relations with the administration of CSI, the President shall be required, but not limited to, attend all Board of Trustee meetings. In the case of an emergency, a representative of the Senate shall be appointed by the President to attend in their place.

Clause 7: The President may enter into agreement with other entities for the general welfare of the ASCSI. All legally binding agreements to which the President may enter into shall be approved by a super-majority vote of the Senate.

Clause 8: The President shall establish such executive councils and committees as necessary to serve the general welfare of the ASCSI.

Clause 9: The President shall have the sole power and discretion to make all appointments to Senate offices and committees with the exception of any office whose membership is determined by election or otherwise stated herein.

Clause 10: The President shall be required to appoint individual(s) to fill all vacancies in elected or appointed office(s) for the remainder of the term of said vacated office(s).

Clause 11: The President may dismiss any member within the Senate with stated cause and a super-majority vote of the Senate.

Clause 12: The President shall be empowered to approve or veto all Senate legislation, with the exception of all internal rules and procedures, as established within this constitution and the ASCSI Bylaws.

Clause 13: The President shall call special sessions of the Senate when necessary to protect and maintain the general welfare of the ASCSI.

Clause 14: The President shall be subject to removal from office by recall or impeachment as allowed in Article VIII, Sections 3 and 4 of this constitution.

Clause 15: If the office of President is vacant for any reason, the position shall transfer to the Vice-President. Should vacancies occur in both the offices of President and Vice-President, the Pro-Tempore shall then act as President.

Clause 16: The President shall perform any other duties that are necessary to promote and defend the general welfare of the ASCSI as defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 4: ASCSI Vice-President

Clause 1: The Vice-President shall be the Chair of all Senate meetings and shall only vote when there is a tie concerning a matter which can be resolved by simple majority.

Clause 2: The Vice-President shall assume the duties of the President whenever the President designates or is absent from his/her duties.

Clause 3: In case of vacancy or absence of the Vice-President, the Pro-Tempore shall take over all duties and responsibilities of the Vice-President. In case of vacancies in both offices, the President may recommend a member of the Senate to conduct the meeting. If no recommendation is made, the President shall conduct the meeting.

Clause 4: The Vice-President shall be an ex-officio member of all ASCSI councils and committees.

Clause 5: The Vice-President shall be subject to removal from office by recall or impeachment as allowed in Article VIII, Sections 3 and 4 of this constitution.

Clause 6: Additional duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 5: ASCSI Secretary

Clause 1: The Secretary disseminates and maintains all records of the Senate and is a non-voting member of the Senate.

Clause 2: The Secretary shall be approved by a super-majority vote of the ASCSI Senate.

Clause 3: The Secretary shall be nominated from among the members of the Senate by the President.

Clause 4: The Secretary may be recalled from the office of Secretary with a super-majority vote of the Senate; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Secretary duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 5: The Secretary may resign from the office of Secretary with a written resignation; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Secretary duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 6: Additional qualifications and duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 6: ASCSI Treasurer

Clause 1: The Treasurer monitors the financial records of the Senate and is a non-voting member of the Senate.

Clause 2: The Treasurer shall be approved by a super-majority vote of the ASCSI Senate.

Clause 3: The Treasurer shall be nominated from among the members of the Senate by the President.

Clause 4: The Treasurer may be recalled from the office of Treasurer with a super-majority vote of the Senate; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Treasurer duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 5: The Treasurer may resign from the office of Treasurer with a written resignation; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Treasurer duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 6: Additional qualifications and duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 7: ASCSI Pro-Tempore

Clause 2: In the absence of the President, the Pro-Tempore shall be the acting Vice-President of the Senate while the Vice-President is acting President. If both offices are absent, the Pro-Tempore shall be the acting President and Chairman of regular meetings.

Clause 3: The Pro-Tempore shall be an active voting member within the Senate.

Clause 4: The Pro-Tempore shall be the Chair of the Rules Committee.

Clause 5: The Pro-Tempore may be recalled from the office of Pro-Tempore with a super-majority vote of the Senate; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Pro-Tempore duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 6: The Pro-Tempore may resign from the office of Pro-Tempore with a written resignation; at which point he/she will be relieved of all Pro-Tempore duties but shall remain a Senator.

Clause 7: Additional qualifications and duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

ARTICLE III: LEGISLATIVE POWERS OF THE ASCSI SENATE

The legislative powers herein shall be vested in the ASCSI Senate and in the members of the ASCSI through referendum, initiative, and recall.

Section 1: ASCSI Senate

The Senate is the legislative body of the ASCSI and is responsible for conducting all business of the ASCSI. Senators are elected by a popular vote of the ASCSI and are voting members of the Senate.

Section 2: Membership of the ASCSI Senate

The Senate shall be a representative unicameral body consisting of twelve Senate members. The seats elected shall consist of a combination of freshmen and sophomores. No more than 2/3 of Senate shall consist of either group, freshmen or sophomores.

Section 3: Power of the ASCSI Senate

Clause 1: The Senate shall have the sole power to enact legislation with the exception of referendum and initiative as outlined herein.

Clause 2: The Senate shall initiate all Bylaws, Senate regulations, Senate codes, operating procedures, and all other legislation as may be necessary for the general welfare of the ASCSI.

Clause 3: The Senate shall have legislative authority over all SCSi funds through the approval of a budget and the controlling of all Senate Accounts and the reserve funds of the ASCSI.

Clause 4: The Senate shall establish and determine the functions of all ASCSI committees.

Clause 5: The Senate shall set the time, date, and place of all Senate meetings and may call special sessions of the Senate with a super-majority vote. Refer to the Bylaws for further details.

Clause 6: At least two executive council members and a simple majority of voting members of the Senate shall be necessary for a quorum and to conduct official business.

Clause 7: Every bill, which has passed the Senate, shall, before it becomes a law, be submitted to the President of the ASCSI and, if approved, shall sign the bill, but if vetoed, the ASCSI President shall present it with objections to the Senate within ten calendar days of its passage.

Clause 8: The Senate may override the veto of the President with a super-majority vote, upon which it shall become law. The Senate shall have no more than two opportunities to override the veto within two calendar weeks of the veto's return to override the veto.

Clause 9: If any bill is not returned by the President to the Senate within ten calendar days after it has been presented to the President, the said bill shall become law as if it had been signed by the President; unless the Senate, by their adjournment, prevent its return, in which case it shall not become law.

Clause 10: Every bill or resolution, which has a binding and enforceable effect, shall be submitted to the President for approval or veto.

Clause 11: All records of proceedings of the Senate shall be kept and made available to the ASCSI and shall be publicly posted as defined by the ASCSI Bylaws.

Clause 12: The Senate shall have the power of impeachment.

Clause 13: The Senate shall have the power to establish committees or other appendages necessary to assist in their legislative and administrative functions.

Clause 14: The Senate shall have the sole power to review, at will, appointments made within the ASCSI Senate. At which point, if they find the appointment to be a detriment to the ASCSI, the Senate may overturn it with a super-majority vote.

Clause 15: The Senate shall have the sole power to establish election rules and supervise all ASCSI elections via the Rules Committee.

Clause 16: The Senate shall have the sole power to grant recognition to all campus councils, clubs, and organizations.

Clause 17: All meetings of the Senate, except when in executive session, shall be open to all members of the ASCSI, and provisions shall be made to accommodate all those that desire to attend.

Clause 18: The Senate shall establish procedures through Bylaws and standard operating procedures.

Clause 19: To approve, by a majority vote, all events concerning the ASCSI.

Clause 20: To ratify all presidential appointments.

Clause 21: Senators shall be subject to removal from office by recall or impeachment as allowed in Article VIII, Sections 3 and 4.

ARTICLE IV: COUNCIL AND COMMITTEE SYSTEM

Section 1: Councils

Clause 1: Standing councils shall be determined by the Senate in the spring semester for the following academic year. Further requirements, specifications, and liaison duties shall be outlined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Clause 2: Any member of an ASCSI council cannot be a member of another CSI-recognized leadership group, with the exception of CSI clubs.

Clause 3: All candidates to become members of an ASCSI council shall go through a conduct review made by the Dean of Students before they can become members.

Clause 4: All meetings of an ASCSI council or other Senate-recognized entities, except when in executive session, shall be open to all members of the ASCSI, and provisions shall be made to accommodate all those that desire to attend.

Clause 5: Regarding the hiring of membership to a council, advisors shall not have the final say on membership. All membership shall be decided through the current executive team of the council as defined in the council's constitution, with the exception of conduct reviews and Senate's elected membership.

Clause 6: All councils must abide by Senate's Constitution and its Bylaws.

Section 2: Committees

There shall be three standing committees of the Senate: Rules Committee, Legislative Committee, and The Oversight and Accountability Committee.

Section 3: Chairpersons and Duties

The Senate shall have a minimum of one Senator as the chairperson over a committee. Duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

ARTICLE V: STANDING COMMITTEES

Section 1: Rules Committee

Clause 1: The Rules Committee will be chaired by the Pro-Tempore. The chairperson and committee shall be responsible for the execution and conduct of all rules of the Senate and all student campus-wide elections.

Clause 2: The Rules Committee shall uphold and interpret how the ASCIS Constitution and Bylaws will be enforced.

Clause 3: It shall be the duty of the Rules Committee to certify the petition of nomination as valid and the candidate(s) as eligible in accordance with the election requirements stated in the ASCSI Constitution and Bylaws.

Clause 4: Additional duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 2: Legislative Committee

Clause 1: The Legislative Committee shall be chaired by a Senator appointed by the President.

Clause 2: The Legislative Committee will have the responsibility for organizing efforts to advocate to the Idaho State Legislature, the CSI Board of Trustees, and other bodies whose actions concern ASCSI in order to represent the best interest of students and the College.

Clause 3: Additional duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

Section 3: The Oversight and Accountability Committee

Clause 1: The Oversight and Accountability Committee shall consist of two directors or representatives of each ASCSI council and their advisor(s).

Clause 2: The power of voting shall only be granted to the directors/representatives of the councils, excluding the ASCSI President and ASCSI Vice-President.

Clause 4: It shall have the power to veto any legislative action made by Senate that shall affect self-serving budgetary matters relating to Senate. In which case, said legislation shall go back to Senate for further discussion.

Clause 5: The Senate shall have the power to resubmit a piece of legislation for approval after a veto. No legislation shall be resubmitted more than twice.

Clause 6: Any legislation that fails to be approved by the Oversight and Accountability Committee shall be considered void.

Clause 7: Additional duties shall be defined in the ASCSI Bylaws.

ARTICLE VI: FINANCE

Section 1: Revenue

Clause 1: All revenue from designated student fees and other means of funding of the ASCSI shall be monitored and controlled by the Senate.

Clause 2: Any revenue made by any ASCSI council or entity, for the purpose of fundraising, shall be monitored and controlled by the council or entity. Said revenue shall be added to the council's account and must be used within the fiscal year. No revenue shall "roll over" onto the fiscal year following the year it was fundraised.

Clause 3: Money fundraised by a council shall not be used for the purpose of extra scholarship funding.

Section 2: Budget

The Senate shall be responsible for establishing a semesterly budget for the Senate, ASCSI councils, and any other entities.

Clause 2: The budget shall be passed no later than the second week of May and be submitted to the appropriate administrator.

Section 3: Disbursements

All expenditures not budgeted shall be submitted to the Senate as prescribed in the ASCSI Bylaws and must be approved by a super-majority vote.

ARTICLE VII: ELECTIONS

Any member of the ASCSI may become a candidate for office after having fulfilled the eligibility requirements as stated in the ASCSI Constitution and Bylaws.

Clause 1: The President, Vice-President, and additional Senators shall be elected in a general election to be held the week following spring break.

Clause 2: All elected Senators shall be determined as such by a plurality of all votes cast during their election.

Clause 3: All election results will be certified by the Rules Committee and approved by the Senate within two weeks of the election, except in case of a protest, in which case one extra week will be allowed.

Clause 4: All election protests must be received by the Rules Committee Chairperson, in writing or email, within three calendar days of the election date.

Clause 5: The candidate for office, elected or appointed, shall begin attending Senate meetings immediately after their declaration of candidacy has been accepted by the Rules Committee to gain a better understanding of the ASCSI Student Government and their duties.

Clause 6: The Senators-Elect, President-Elect, and Vice-President-Elect shall begin attending Senate, council, and committee meetings immediately after the Senate certifies the election results to begin an apprenticeship and transition to the ASCSI Student Government.

Clause 7: All President and Vice-President candidates who fail to get elected into office shall not be permitted to be appointed into Senate for the academic year in which they ran for said office.

Section 1: Vo*All current ASCSI members are eligible to vote upon verification of their enrollment.

Section 2: Oath of Office

All elected officers, Senators, and appointed members of the Senate shall be required to take the following Oath of Office before they assume their duties: "I (state name), do solemnly swear, I will support the government of the Associated Student Body of the College of Southern Idaho, its Constitution, Bylaws, and ordinances, and I will execute the duties of my office, as stated in the ASCSI Constitution and Bylaws, to the best of my ability."

Section 3: Eligibility

In order to be elected or appointed to an Executive Office of Senate position, a student must be currently enrolled in a minimum of six semester credit hours and have a cumulative grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 grading scale. In the case of a first-semester freshman, a minimum high school grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 grading scale is required as well as being currently enrolled in a minimum of six semester credit hours at the College of Southern Idaho. In the instance of a new freshman who has been home-schooled or has qualified to attend the College of Southern Idaho by passing the GED, a minimum score comparable to a 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 grading scale will be required as well as being currently enrolled in a minimum of six semester credit hours at the College of Southern Idaho. In the case of freshmen with Dual Credit courses already completed, the college grade point average is not considered.

Clause 1: To maintain their current eligible status on the Senate, a student must successfully complete six credits per semester and maintain a cumulative 2.5 GPA on a 4.0 grading scale for each semester they serve.

Clause 2: To define “successfully complete”, a student must complete at least 67% of the courses attempted each semester and meet grade requirements as stated in the current CSI catalog. If the above requirements are not met, the student will enter into academic probation, to be further defined by the Rules Committee. In the event of extraordinary circumstances (i.e. medical, personal, etc.), the student has the right to appeal his/her eligibility to an appeals committee.

Clause 3: To be eligible to run for the office of the President or the Vice-President, a student must have served a parliamentary position. “Parliamentary position” shall be interpreted as having served one full semester in any standing council at CSI. “One full semester,” shall be interpreted as serving above 50% of the time on the Senate at CSI for that semester. In the instance of no other eligible candidates, a student who has served at another college or university, or any other accredited parliamentary leadership organization, verified and approved by the ASCSI Student Government Advisors, shall be considered an eligible candidate.

Section 4: Term of Office

For all members of the Senate, their term of office shall begin upon taking the Oath of Office and shall expire the last meeting of April as the last order of business after the new officers have been fully trained by the outgoing members of the Senate. No student shall serve more than three full academic years, or six full semesters, on the Senate.

Section 5: Vacancies of Offices

In the case of vacant offices for less than 1/4, 25%, of the Senate, regardless of reason, the President may, with the approval of the Senate, nominate a duly qualified person to the Senate. Upon a super-majority vote in favor of the nomination, the President may confirm and appoint the said student to office. In the case of vacant offices for 1/4, 25%, or more of the Senate, the President, with the approval of the Senate, shall call a special election to fill any vacancies regardless of reason. Vacated positions must be replaced within two weeks and Special Elections must be held within three weeks.

ARTICLE VIII: INITIATIVE, REFERENDUM, AND RECALL

Section 1: Initiative

The ASCSI may propose legislation in the following manner: a minimum of fifteen percent of the ASCSI may sign a petition and file it with the Secretary. The President shall then submit this petition for a vote of the ASCSI at the next general election, or by a special election called by the President. Any initiative receiving a simple majority vote of the ASCSI will become law.

Clause 1: The initiative petition shall include the full text of the proposed law. In addition, a line for the printed name, signature, and student identification number of all students signing the petition. All signatures, printed names, and student identification numbers must be legible. It should indicate if the petition signers are requesting a special election or a general election.

Clause 2: No initiative shall be considered law if it is in contradiction with the Constitution of the ASCSI.

Section 2: Referendum

Any law shall be considered null and void if a referendum for the said law is accepted by a majority of the members of the ASCSI in a general or special election. All legislative actions of the Senate may be rescinded by the ASCSI in the following manner: A minimum of fifteen percent of the ASCSI sign a petition and file it with the Secretary, requesting that such legislative action be submitted to ASCSI for rejection. If such a petition is filed, that referendum shall be submitted at the next general election or special election called by the President and shall be rescinded by a simple majority vote of the ASCSI.

Clause 1: The referendum petition shall include the full text of the law to be rescinded. In addition, a line for the printed name, signature, and student identification number of all students signing the petition. All signatures, printed names, and student identification numbers must be legible. The petition shall indicate if the petition signers are requesting a special election or wait until the next general election.

Clause 2: No referendum shall be valid if it is in contradiction with the Constitution of the ASCSI.

Section 3: Recall of Senate Members

Any member of the Senate may be subject to removal from office by recall of any ASCSI student(s) in the following manner: A petition containing the full text of the charges and complaints against the said officer and the validated signatures of a minimum fifteen percent of the ASCSI and file it with the Secretary or advisors. Subsequent to the validation of a petition in proper form, a recall election shall be held against the officer listed in the said petition. For the President, Vice-President, or Senators to be recalled from office, a super-majority of the votes cast must be in favor of the recall, provided the number voting in the recall election is at least equal to the number of constituents who voted for said officer in the election in which said officer achieved office or normally would have achieved office. A recall election shall occur within thirty calendar days of the validation of the petition calling for the recall.

Clause 1: No officer shall be recalled, nor a petition be circulated calling for the recall of an officer, who has not held the office, from which recall is being sought, for more than thirty calendar days. No person shall be recalled from the office who has less than thirty calendar days left before the natural expiration of the term.

Clause 2: The recall petition shall include details of the grounds for which the officer should be removed from office. In addition, a line for the printed name, signature, and student identification number of all students signing the petition. All signatures, printed names, and student identification numbers must be legible.

Clause 3: The Senate shall legislate the form and manner of all recall elections within the guidelines contained herein.

Section 4: Impeachment

All elected or appointed officers of the Senate shall be subject to removal from office by impeachment for mis-, mal-, or nonfeasance of duty, high crimes, or misdemeanors against the ASCSI.

Clause 1: The Senate shall have the sole power of impeachment. The accused officer shall have the right to a fair and impartial hearing by the Senate.

Clause 2: No member of the Senate shall be tried for impeachment until the accused has been notified, in writing, of the charges seven calendar days prior to the hearing. A hearing shall take place no later than three calendar weeks after the accused has received written notification. No trial for the impeachment of the accused member shall take place without the indictment of a super-majority of the total membership of the Senate.

Clause 3: An officer shall be removed from office, after a hearing, if a unanimous vote of the entire Senate is in favor of removal.

Clause 4: Judgments in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than the removal from office and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under the ASCSI. However, the party convicted shall be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment according to law.

ARTICLE IX: AMENDMENTS

Section 1: Manner of Proposed Amendments

Proposed amendments and/or revisions to the Constitution shall be submitted to the Senate for approval by a super-majority vote. Amendments approved by the Senate shall then be submitted to the membership of the ASCSI in a general or special election and shall be approved by a simple majority of the membership of the ASCSI casting ballots at that election.

Clause 1: All amendments to this Constitution shall be added to the text of this Constitution.

Clause 2: The approval dates for the amendments and ratification shall be recorded at the end of this Constitution and shall be listed consecutively.

Section 2: Ratification of Amendments

A constitutional amendment shall take effect if it is approved on a simple majority of the ballots cast at any regular or special election. All proposed amendments must contain the full text of the amendment(s).

Clause 1: Upon ratification of this Constitution by a simple majority of valid ballots cast by the membership of the ASCSI in an election called by the Senate, this Constitution shall be valid for all intents and purposes immediately after it has been ratified.

Clause 2: Any and all existing constitutions, bylaws, and rules within the ASCSI that are inconsistent with this Constitution shall hereby be considered null and void.

Clause 3: The current members of the Senate shall continue in office until the first installation of officers under this Constitution. All elected and appointed members of the Senate shall be bound by oath of affirmation to support, protect, and defend this Constitution.

Section 3: Special Circumstances for Ratification of Amendments

In case of urgent circumstances for the betterment of the ASCSI students, the Senate, through unanimous vote, may hold a special election for the purposes of amending the ASCSI Senate Constitution.

ARTICLE X: BYLAWS

The ASCSI Bylaws shall contain all regulations deemed necessary by and for the ASCSI Senate for the procedural operation of the Student Government.

ARTICLE XI: ELECTED POSITION AND SERVICE SCHOLARSHIPS

No member of the ASCSI shall concurrently hold more than one elected or appointed position within the ASCSI Senate. No member of the ASCSI shall be allowed to receive more than one service-related scholarship per semester related to Senate duties.

ARTICLE XII: PROPER AND NECESSARY

The ASCSI Senate may make all laws, which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this Constitution in the government of the ASCSI, or in any department or officer thereof.

Amendment List

A total of 26 separate amendments were made to the Constitution during the 2021 academic year. They were approved by the Senate February 4, 2021, and ratified by the student body April 20, 2021.

A total of 54 separate amendments were made to the Constitution during the 2023 academic year. They were approved by the Senate March 26, 2024, and ratified by the student body April 5, 2024.
